

Please reconsider and don't take FM translators and my KLOVE off the air! LPFM will not replace it with the same quality and wholesome values that stations like KLOVE have, it is something our country needs to help have a positive and encouraging impact on communities all across America.